VERIFIED COMPLAINT OF FORFEITURE

COMES NOW, Plaintiff, United States of America, by and through its attorneys, Jeffrey B. Jensen, United States Attorney for the Eastern District of Missouri, and Lindsay McClure-Hartman, Assistant United States Attorney, brings this verified complaint for forfeiture in a civil action in rem against the above listed currency, namely: eighty-eight thousand, two hundred dollars in U.S. currency ($88,200.00) (the “defendant currency”), and alleges as follows:

Nature of the Action

1. This in rem civil action arises from an investigation by the Drug Enforcement Administration leading to the seizure of the defendant currency on or about November 20, 2017. As set forth below, the defendant currency is subject to forfeiture pursuant to Title 21, United States Code, Section 881(a)(6), and Title 18, United States Code, Sections 981(a)(1)(A) and (C).

Jurisdiction and Venue

2. The Court has jurisdiction over this action pursuant to Title 28, United States Code, Sections 1345, 1355, and 1395.

3. Venue is proper pursuant to Title 28, United States Code, Section 1355(b)(1)(A) because the acts and omissions giving rise to forfeiture took place in the Eastern District of Missouri. Venue is also proper pursuant to Title 28, United States Code, Section 1395(b) because the defendant currency was seized in the Eastern District of Missouri.

Statutory Framework

4. Title 21, United States Code, Section 881(a)(6) authorizes the civil forfeiture of “all moneys, negotiable instruments, securities, or other things of value furnished or intended to be furnished by any person in exchange for a controlled substance or listed chemical in violation of this subchapter, all proceeds traceable to such an exchange, and all moneys, negotiable instruments, and securities used or intended to be used to facilitate any violation of this subchapter.”

5. Title 18, United States Code, Section 1956(a)(1)(A)(i) criminalizes conducting a transaction, including transferring, delivering, or other disposition, knowing that such transaction represents the proceeds of some form of unlawful activity and that in fact involves the proceeds of a specific unlawful activity, including violations of the Controlled Substances Act, with the intent to promote the carrying on of the specified unlawful activity.

6. Title 18, United States Code, Section 1956(a)(1)(B) criminalizes conducting a transaction, including transfer, delivery, or other disposition, knowing that such transaction represents the proceeds of some form of unlawful activity and that in fact involves the proceeds of a specific unlawful activity, including violations of the Controlled Substances Act, knowing that the transaction is designed in whole or in part to conceal or disguise the nature, location, source, ownership, or control of the proceeds of specified unlawful activity.

7. Pursuant to Title 18, United States Code, Section 981(a)(1)(A), any property, real or personal, involved in a transaction or attempted transaction in violation of section 1956 of Title 18, or any property traceable to such property, is subject to civil forfeiture.

8. Title 18, United States Code, Section 1952 criminalizes traveling in interstate commerce with the intent to distribute the proceeds of any unlawful activity, including a business enterprise involving controlled substances, or otherwise promoting, managing, establishing, carry on, or facilitating the promotion, management, establishment, or carrying on, of such unlawful activity.

9. Pursuant to Title 18, United States Code, Section 981(a)(1)(C), any property, real or personal, which constitutes or is derived from proceeds traceable to a violation of Title 18, United States Code, Section 1952 is subject to civil forfeiture.

Facts Giving Rise to the Forfeiture

10. Nathan Edwards (“Edwards”) and Erin Nelson (“Nelson”) reside in Grass Valley, California.

11. On or about November 20, 2017, a St. Charles County Police officer deputized as a task force officer with the Drug Enforcement Administration was conducting traffic enforcement with his certified narcotics trained canine partner.

12. At approximately 10:36 AM, the officer observed a 2017 Nissan Armada traveling westbound on Interstate 70 near Foristell, Missouri, within the Eastern District of Missouri, and conducted a traffic stop of the vehicle for a traffic violation.

13. Edwards was driving the vehicle and Nelson was in the front passenger seat.

14. When the officer approached, Edwards apologized to the officer for the traffic violation and told him that he was not used to the vehicle as it was a rental.

15. Edwards provided a rental agreement to the officer showing that on November 15,

2017, at approximately 8:57 PM, Edwards rented the vehicle from a Thrifty Car Rental location at the Salt Lake City International Airport in Salt Lake City, Utah. According to the rental contract, Edwards was to return the vehicle on November 24, 2017, for a total estimated charge of $1,160.29.

16. The officer asked Edwards if he would accompany him to his patrol car while he conducted a records check, and Edwards agreed. Nelson remained in the vehicle to look for the registration paperwork.

17. While in the patrol car, Edwards was shaking and appeared nervous. Edwards told the officer that he was married to Nelson, that neither were employed, and that they were travelling to Tennessee to help Edwards' brother move. Edwards stated that his brother later called and told him that he did not need help moving after all. Edwards stated that he and Nelson only made it as far east as St. Louis, Missouri, and that he and Nelson stayed two nights in a hotel in St. Louis, Missouri, before heading back west.

18. When the officer asked Edwards why he had rented a vehicle from Utah when he resides in California, Edwards stated that he drove to Utah to rent the vehicle because it was more convenient. Salt Lake City, Utah, is approximately 600 miles from Grass Valley, California.

19. The officer asked Edwards if there were any narcotics or large amounts of currency in the vehicle. Edwards stated that he only had $200 cash and that there were no narcotics in the vehicle.

20. The officer then returned to the vehicle to speak with Nelson. The officer asked Nelson from where she and Edwards were travelling, and Nelson stated that she and Edwards had spent the previous two nights in Tennessee and that they were helping Edwards' brother move. The officer asked if Edwards and Nelson were able to get Edwards' brother moved, and Nelson said yes.

21. The officer returned to his patrol car and asked Edwards if he consented to a search of the vehicle. Edwards stated that he could not consent because the vehicle was a rental.

22. The officer asked whether Edwards consented to a narcotics trained canine to perform a sniff of the vehicle, and Edwards stated that he did not care.

23. The officer deployed his canine partner. When the canine approached the rear passenger door, he alerted to the presence of a narcotics odor.

24. Additional officers reported to the scene to assist. Based on the totality of the circumstances, the officers conducted a warrantless search of the vehicle.

25. In the rear cargo area near the rear passenger door, officers found a large gray duffle bag that contained three other empty duffle bags, a vacuum sealing machine, and packaging materials. Each of the empty duffle bags had an odor of raw marijuana. Also in the rear cargo area, officers found a red bag that contained several bundles of currency that were vacuum sealed and wrapped in colored plastic, and a small personal safe that was locked.

26. Officers then separately transported Edwards, Nelson, and the vehicle to a towing location to perform a more complete search of the vehicle.

27. Edwards was advised of his Miranda rights. Edwards stated that he understood his rights and agreed to speak with officers. During the ride to the towing location, Edwards stated that he did not know how the bag with the money or the empty duffle bags got into the vehicle. When asked about the vacuum sealing machine, Nathan stated that he used it to seal chicken that was inside a cooler in the vehicle.

28. Nelson was also advised of her Miranda rights. Nelson stated that she understood her rights and agreed to speak with officers. During the ride to the towing location, Nelson stated that she had no knowledge of the currency found inside the vehicle. Nelson further stated that she and Edwards had spent the last three nights in Nashville, Tennessee, where her brother lives.

29. At the towing location, officers again searched the vehicle and discovered receipts showing that Nelson had rented hotel rooms in Coalville, Utah, for one night on November 15, 2017; in York, Nebraska, for one night on November 16, 2017; and in St. Louis, Missouri, for three nights between November 17 and 20, 2017. Finally, officers discovered a cooler that contained food items, none of which were wrapped in vacuum-sealed packaging.

30. Officers asked Edwards if he had a key to the locked safe that was found in the red bag. Edwards stated that he did not have a key. Officers asked if any of the keys on his key chain might work on the safe. Edwards then admitted that he did have the key and provided it to officers. Inside the safe, officers found additional U.S. currency wrapped in plastic, a pair of scissors and rubber bands.

31. The total amount of U.S. currency found inside the vehicle was $88,200.00 (the defendant currency).

32. Edwards was again advised of his Miranda rights, and he stated that he understood his rights. Edwards then signed a written disclaimer form disavowing knowledge or possession of the defendant currency.

33. Nelson was again advised of her Miranda rights, and she stated that she understood her rights. Nelson then signed a written disclaimer form disavowing knowledge or possession of the defendant currency.

COUNT ONE – FORFEITURE
21 U.S.C. § 881(a)(6)

34. The United States incorporates by reference the allegations set forth in Paragraphs 1 to 33 above as if fully set forth herein.

35. The defendant currency was found inside a rental vehicle that was travelling from a known narcotics distribution area to a known source area and was bundled in vacuum sealed packs and wrapped in colored plastic. In addition, the defendant currency was found in close proximity to three empty duffle bags that smelled of marijuana, a vacuum sealing machine, and other packing materials. Edwards and Nelson provided conflicting statements regarding their travel itinerary, and both signed written statements disavowing any interest in the defendant currency.

36. Based on the foregoing, the defendant currency is subject to forfeiture pursuant to Title 21, United States Code, Section 881(a)(6) as money furnished or intended to be furnished in exchange for a controlled substance, as proceeds traceable to such an exchange, and as money to be used to facilitate a violation of the Controlled Substances Act.

COUNT TWO – FORFEITURE
18 U.S.C. § 981(a)(1)(A)

37. The United States incorporates by reference the allegations set forth in Paragraphs 1 to 33 above as if fully set forth herein.

38. The defendant currency is proceeds of an unlawful activity involving controlled substances and was transported through the Eastern District of Missouri by Edwards and Nelson with the intent to promote the carrying on of, and to conceal or disguise the nature, location, source, ownership or control of, a specified unlawful activity.

39. Based on the foregoing, the defendant currency is subject to forfeiture, pursuant to Title 18, United States Code, Section 981(a)(1)(C) as property involved in a transaction or attempted transaction in violation of Title 18, United States Code, Section 1956, or as property traceable to such property.

COUNT THREE – FORFEITURE

18 U.S.C. § 981(a)(1)(C)

40. The United States incorporates by reference the allegations set forth in Paragraphs 1 to 33 above as if fully set forth herein.

41. The defendant currency is proceeds of an unlawful activity involving controlled substances that travelled with Edwards and Nelson in interstate commerce with the intent to distribute it, and otherwise promote, manage, establish, carry on, or facilitate the promotion, management, establishment, or carrying on, of an unlawful activity involving controlled substances.

42. Based on the foregoing, the defendant currency is subject to forfeiture, pursuant to Title 18, United States Code, Section 981(a)(1)(C) as property that constitutes or is derived from proceeds traceable to a violation of Title 18, United States Code, Section 1952.

PRAYER FOR RELIEF

WHEREFORE, the United States of America prays that a Warrant for Arrest be issued in rem for the defendant currency and the defendant currency be condemned and forfeited to the United States of America, in accordance with the provisions of law; and that the United States of America be awarded its costs in this action, and have such other relief as provided by law and the nature of the case may require.

Respectfully submitted,

INSTRUCTIONS FOR ATTORNEYS COMPLETING CIVIL COVER SHEET FORM JS 44Authority For Civil Cover Sheet

The JS 44 civil cover sheet and the information contained herein neither replaces nor supplements the filings and service of pleading or other papers as required by law, except as provided by local rules of court. This form, approved by the Judicial Conference of the United States in September 1974, is required for the use of the Clerk of Court for the purpose of initiating the civil docket sheet. Consequently, a civil cover sheet is submitted to the Clerk of Court for each civil complaint filed. The attorney filing a case should complete the form as follows:

I. (a) Plaintiffs-Defendants. Enter names (last, first, middle initial) of plaintiff and defendant. If the plaintiff or defendant is a government agency, use only the full name or standard abbreviations. If the plaintiff or defendant is an official within a government agency, identify first the agency and then the official, giving both name and title.

(b) County of Residence. For each civil case filed, except U.S. plaintiff cases, enter the name of the county where the first listed plaintiff resides at the time of filing. In U.S. plaintiff cases, enter the name of the county in which the first listed defendant resides at the time of filing. (NOTE: In land condemnation cases, the county of residence of the "defendant" is the location of the tract of land involved.)

(c) Attorneys. Enter the firm name, address, telephone number, and attorney of record. If there are several attorneys, list them on an attachment, noting in this section "(see attachment)".

II. Jurisdiction. The basis of jurisdiction is set forth under Rule 8(a), F.R.C.P., which requires that jurisdictions be shown in pleadings. Place an "X" in one of the boxes. If there is more than one basis of jurisdiction, precedence is given in the order shown below.

United States plaintiff. (1) Jurisdiction based on 28 U.S.C. 1345 and 1348. Suits by agencies and officers of the United States are included here.

United States defendant. (2) When the plaintiff is suing the United States, its officers or agencies, place an "X" in this box.

Federal question. (3) This refers to suits under 28 U.S.C. 1331, where jurisdiction arises under the Constitution of the United States, an amendment to the Constitution, an act of Congress or a treaty of the United States. In cases where the U.S. is a party, the U.S. plaintiff or defendant code takes precedence, and box 1 or 2 should be marked.

Diversity of citizenship. (4) This refers to suits under 28 U.S.C. 1332, where parties are citizens of different states. When Box 4 is checked, the citizenship of the different parties must be checked. (See Section III below; federal question actions take precedence over diversity cases.)

III. Residence (citizenship) of Principal Parties. This section of the JS 44 is to be completed if diversity of citizenship was indicated above. Mark this section for each principal party.

IV. Nature of Suit. Place an "X" in the appropriate box. If the nature of suit cannot be determined, be sure the cause of action, in Section VI below, is sufficient to enable the deputy clerk or the statistical clerks in the Administrative Office to determine the nature of suit. If the cause fits more than one nature of suit, select the most definitive.

V. Origin. Place an "X" in one of the seven boxes.

Original Proceedings. (1) Cases which originate in the United States district courts.

Removed from State Court. (2) Proceedings initiated in state courts may be removed to the district courts under Title 28 U.S.C., Section 1441. When the petition for removal is granted, check this box.

Remanded from Appellate Court. (3) Check this box for cases remanded to the district court for further action. Use the date of remand as the filing date.

Reinstated or Reopened. (4) Check this box for cases reinstated or reopened in the district court. Use the reopening date as the filing date.

Transferred from Another District. (5) For cases transferred under Title 28 U.S.C. Section 1404(a). Do not use this for within district transfers or multidistrict litigation transfers.

Multidistrict Litigation. (6) Check this box when a multidistrict case is transferred into the district under authority of Title 28 U.S.C. Section 1407. When this box is checked, do not check (5) above.

Appeal to District Judge from Magistrate Judgment. (7) Check this box for an appeal from a magistrate judge's decision.

VI. Cause of Action. Report the civil statute directly related to the cause of action and give a brief description of the cause. Do not cite jurisdictional statutes unless diversity. Example: U.S. Civil Statute: 47 USC 553
Brief Description: Unauthorized reception of cable service

VII. Requested in Complaint. Class Action. Place an "X" in this box if you are filing a class action under Rule 23, F.R.Cv.P.

Demand. In this space enter the dollar amount (in thousands of dollars) being demanded or indicate other demand such as a preliminary injunction.

Jury Demand. Check the appropriate box to indicate whether or not a jury is being demanded.

VIII. Related Cases. This section of the JS 44 is used to reference related pending cases if any. If there are related pending cases, insert the docket numbers and the corresponding judge names for such cases.

Date and Attorney Signature. Date and sign the civil cover sheet.
